

New Board of Directors for Lindex

Tracy Stone, Global Sales Director at GANT, and Rossana Mariano, CEO and founder of RMPR, was elected yesterday to the Board of Directors for AB Lindex. The Board also includes three representatives from Stockmann. The new chairman of the Board is Per Sjödel, Managing Director of Fiskars Sweden. The aim is to elect an additional independent Director before the end of the year. The Board previously consisted of members of the Stockmann Group's management.

Lindex goal is to be a global fashion brand and to continue its successful international expansion. To support the company's strategy, the extra shareholders' meeting elected an operational Board of Directors for AB Lindex.

"I look forward working together with this competent board, it will support Lindex future as an international fashion retailer. I am very confident in taking the lead in Lindex next steps", says Ingvar Larsson, CEO AB Lindex

Tracy Stone and Rossana Mariano have been elected to the Board of Directors and they bring extensive experience in the fashion and retail industries, and international expansion.

Tracy Stone, born 1962, UK citizen, works as Global Sales Director at GANT. Prior to her current position, she worked as Managing Director of GANT UK, Head of Beauty at House of Fraser, Sales and Retail Director at SpaceNK, and Retail Operations Manager at Selfridges.

Rossana Mariano, born 1962, Swedish citizen, is the CEO and founder of RMPR, a leading Swedish lifestyle PR agency. She has wide knowledge of fashion and media industries with experience from Damernas Värld magazine, H&M, Nordiska Kompaniet (NK) and consulting clients such as Louis Vuitton, Canada Goose, Gudrun Sjödén, and L'Occitane.
